

CONFIRMATION MEMORY WORK #2

Take your time and memorize the following commandments and their meanings.

When you are ready, have your Mom or Dad check you on your memory work. If it is done to your satisfaction and to theirs, each of you sign the bottom of this sheet and return it to your confirmation guide for credit. Then REJOICE as memorizing this is no small feat!

To help you stay on track for the year, your target date for handing in this first section of memory work is Jan 20.

The Sixth Commandment

You shall not commit adultery.

What is this?

We are to fear and love God, so that we lead pure and decent lives in word and deed, and each of us loves and honors his or her spouse.

The Seventh Commandment

You shall not steal.

What is this?

We are to fear and love God, so that we neither take our neighbors' money or property nor cheat them by using shoddy merchandise or crooked deals to obtain it for ourselves, but instead help them to improve and protect their property and income.

The Eighth Commandment

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

What is this?

We are to fear and love God, so that we do not tell lies about our neighbors, betray or slander them, or destroy their reputations. Instead we are to come to their defense, speak well of them, and interpret every thing they do in the best possible light.

The Ninth Commandment

You shall not covet your neighbor's house.

What is this?

We are to fear and love God, so that we do not try to trick our neighbors out of their inheritance or property or try to get it for ourselves by claiming to have a legal right to it and the like, but instead be of help and service to them in keeping what is theirs.

The Tenth Commandment

You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

What is this?

We are to fear and love God, so that we do not entice, force, or steal away from our neighbors their spouses, workers, or livestock, but instead urge them to stay and remain loyal to our neighbors.
